MOTION OF STAY RELIEF BASED ON MODERN LEGAL GENOCIDE

Genocide is the “intentional action” to destroy a people, partially or totally = Vieques.

The Plaintiffs Voting Rights Sovereignty are withheld illegally with PROMESA Stay, for over 550 days.

RESPECTFULLY, COMES NOW, Plaintiffs YASHEI ROSARIO, President CODESU & DEVELOPMENT SOCIOECONOMIC SUSTAINABLE FIDEICOMISO OF VIEQUES, CODESU, Inc., vs. THE FINANCIAL OVERSIGHT AND MANAGEMENT BOARD OF PUERTO RICO, as representative of THE COMMONWEALTH OF PUERTO RICO. PROMESA STAY OR AUTOMATIC STAY shall not be applied to the Plaintiffs Voting Right because in 1870, Congress established as a FEDERAL CRIME, denying, or interfering with the Voting Rights:

9 Naval Training Range was active, and while the BOOM BOMBING BEGAN in Vieques, simultaneously the PROGRESS HIT SAN JUAN with millions of dollars and the Government Economy was BOOMING.

10 Suddenly, Luis Muñoz Marin, a Saint, became the First Governor elected by the Puerto Ricans, and the 11 Government became a Commonwealth; while in Vieques was Raining Bombs, Hallelujah! And in the 12 Main Island were Raining Millions of dollars, Amen. Vieques tried to negotiate a little for them, and the 13 Commonwealth's Politicians refused, and the protests began, trying to reach for little Social Economic

NEITHER ON CASE 18-1782, WHILE PLAINTIFFS ARE NOT CREDITORS.

CASE ON: In Peaje Investments LLC v. García-Padilla, 845 F.3d 505 (1st Cir. 2017), the First Circuit affirmed in part and vacated in part a lower court order denying two motions for relief from the PROMESA stay. The court held, among other things, that: (i) the lack of "adequate protection" of a secured creditor's interest is "cause" for relief from the stay, even though PROMESA does not expressly include language to that effect.

1. PROMESA § 2194 provided that its enactment would serve as a stay of substantially all creditor collection efforts against Puerto Rico, its instrumentalities, and their property until February 15, 2017. As permitted by PROMESA, the commonwealth sought and obtained from the Oversight Board an extension of the stay for an additional 75 days. The Puerto Rico government has since requested that the Oversight Board seek from the United States Congress a further extension of the stay to December 31, 2017. Acts violating the stay are void under section 2194(h).
 - a. November 27th, 2018, Order of Court, applied PROMESA STAY on the Vieques Territorial Voting Right based on the Restructuration of the Fiscal Debt.
 - i. The Stay is not permanent, and the Oversight Fiscal Board must notice that the Stay on Case 18-1782, it is exceeding the 75 Days according to the request of the Government of Puerto Rico.
2. Plaintiffs respectfully are not Creditors nor Collection Companies, nor Demanding for any Monetary claim but for their Voting Rights, respectfully asking the Oversight Fiscal Board to lift the Stay because the case ARISE OUT OF PROMESA.
 - a. Since November 27th, 2018-June 2020 = PROMESA Stay is not permanent and in terms of DISCRIMINATION on the 75 days, Vieques had an extension of Over 2 Years.
 - b. Actually, the Stay is exceeded the 75 days to over 550 days.
 - c. The Fifteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution prohibits the federal government and each state from denying a citizen the right to vote based on that citizen's "race, color, or previous condition of servitude." It was ratified on February 3, 1870, as the third and last of the Reconstruction Amendments.

PSO

Voting Rights Act, U.S. legislation (August 6, 1965), that aimed to overcome legal barriers at the state and local levels that prevented African Americans from exercising their right to vote under the Fifteenth Amendment (1870), to the Constitution of the United States.

1. Since 1917 according to the Jones Law, the Native Viequenses became African Caribbean Americans and the Stay is not permanent.

2. Plaintiffs aimed to overcome legal barriers presented by PROMESA Title III, manipulating the Law and arbitrary violating the 15th Amendment Discriminatory vs Plaintiffs.
 - a. Shelby County v. Holder, 570 U.S. 529 (2013), is a landmark United States Supreme Court case regarding the constitutionality of two provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965: Section 5, which requires certain states and local governments to obtain federal preclearance before implementing any changes to their voting laws or practices; and Section 4(b), which contains the coverage formula that determines which jurisdictions are subjected to preclearance based on their histories of discrimination in voting.
 - b. On June 25, 2013, the Court ruled by a 5-to-4 vote that Section 4(b) is unconstitutional because the coverage formula is based on data over 40 years old, making it no longer responsive to current needs and therefore an impermissible burden on the constitutional principles of federalism and equal sovereignty of the states. The Court did not strike down Section 5, but without Section 4(b), no jurisdiction will be subject to Section 5 preclearance unless Congress enacts a new coverage formula.

PLAINTIFFS VOTING SOVEREIGNTY IS CONSTITUTIONAL AND APPLYING PROMESA STAY TO THE VOTING RIGHTS IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

3. Respectfully, the Oversight Fiscal Board cannot implement PROMESA TITLE III to inactivating the 15th Amendment but Congress can enact a new coverage formula.
 - a. 550 days without lifting the Stay. Such Action is a Federal Crime and Discriminatory.
 - b. Section 2194(e) provides that, upon the request of a party and "after notice and a hearing," the court—the U.S. District Court for the District of Puerto Rico—may grant relief from the stay" for cause shown." The term "cause," however, is not defined.
4. Please, under section 2194(f), the stay automatically terminates 45 or 75 days after a request for stay relief is made unless the court orders otherwise.
 - a. Section 2194(g) provides that, upon the request of a party-in-interest, the court, with or without a hearing, "shall grant such relief from the stay provided under subsection (b) as is necessary to prevent irreparable damage to the interest of an entity in property, if such interest will suffer such damage before there is an opportunity for notice and a hearing" on a stay relief request.
